INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW DIVISION (IPR) - INTERNAL AFFAIRS DIVISION (IAD) PROTOCOLS & PROCEDURES - BUREAU INITIATED COMPLAINTS

Administrative Rules Adopted by Bureau Pursuant to Rule-Making Authority

ARB-PSF-5.02

Section 1 - Bureau Initiated Complaints:

1. Upon opening a Bureau-initiated complaint investigation assigned to IAD, IAD will forward its intake worksheet to the IPR Director and IPR staff will assign an IPR/IAD case number for use by IAD.
 2. After the IAD investigation is complete and IAD has forwarded the investigation results to the appropriate commanding officer for review and recommendations, IAD may forward a copy of the summary investigative report to the IPR Director for review and comment, as appropriate.
 3. IAD will advise the IPR Director of the Bureau's findings.
 4. As chapter 3.21 of Portland City Code does not apply to Bureau initiated complaints, participation in this procedure is discretionary on the part of the Portland Police Bureau.
