

Portland Hope Meadows 2006 Resolution 36449

Portland Hope Meadows

- ❑ Foster children become part of adoptive families and an accepting community.
- ❑ Adoptive parents have the support of each other, older adults and professionals
- ❑ Older adults have a sense of belonging and contributing in a meaningful way.
- ❑ Three generations coming together

Benefits to the Community

- Green, environmentally friendly community striving toward Gold LEED qualification
- Intergenerational Community Center
 - Available for public use
 - Educational classes offered to community
 - Social events including neighborhood
- High quality housing for families, elders, and community
- Well-managed community providing a safe living environment

Benefits to the Children

- ❑ Foster children become part of a family through adoption
- ❑ The youth graduate from high school
- ❑ Ends the cycle of disruptions in home, school, family and friends
- ❑ The youth experience improved mental health
- ❑ A future with a family, vocational training, college and a fulfilling life

Benefits to the Families

- ❑ Fulfilling a dream of building a family
- ❑ Affordable adoption
- ❑ Post-adoption support
- ❑ Safe, quality housing
- ❑ Wisdom of elders
- ❑ Caring community

Benefits to the Elders

- ❑ Safe and nurturing neighborhood
- ❑ Contributing in a meaningful way
- ❑ Affordable housing
- ❑ Improved health

The Portland Hope Meadows Community

- ❑ Housing for Families
- ❑ Housing for Older Adults
- ❑ Gardens
- ❑ Intergenerational Center
- ❑ Coordination of after-school activities, celebrations, events, tutoring
- ❑ Counseling Services
- ❑ Consultation Services
- ❑ Property Maintenance Services

Aerial Site View

SITE AERIAL
NOT TO SCALE

PORTLAND HOPE MEADOWS

PORTLAND HOPE MEADOWS

4221 N. WILLIS BLVD.

CARLETON HART ARCHITECTURE

Architect's Rendering

PORTLAND HOPE MEADOWS

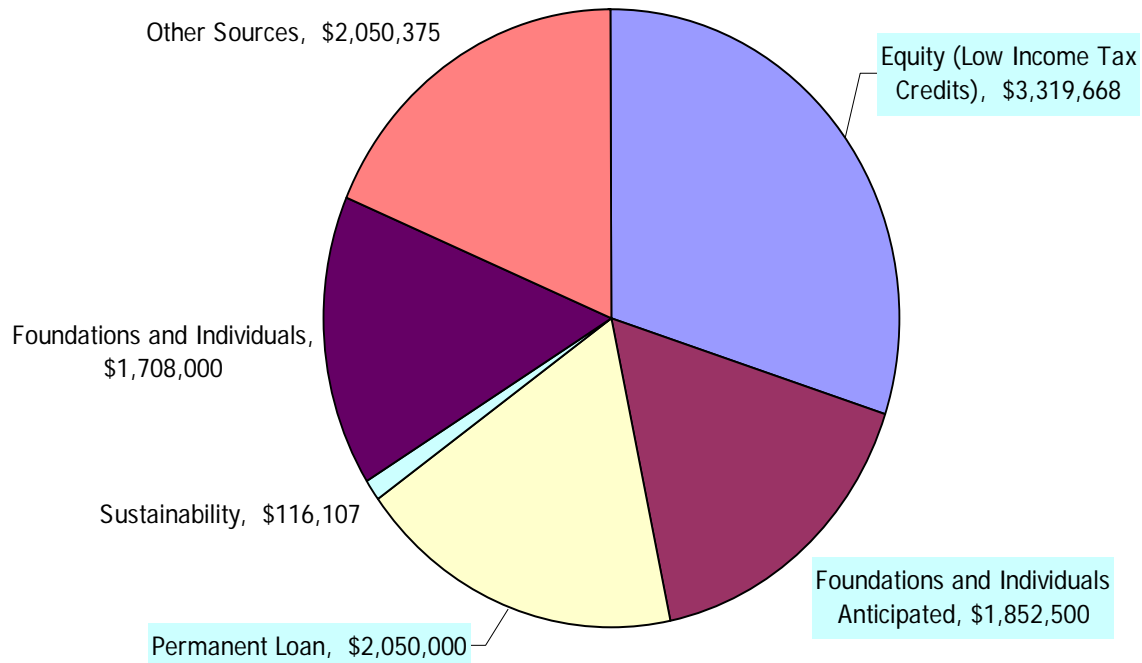

03.14.2008

Funding

- Notable new 2008 contributors include:
 - The Collins Foundation
 - The Ann & Bill Swindells Charitable Trust
 - Meyer Memorial Trust Fund

Funding Sources

Shaded areas indicate site control as needed

Total Project Costs $11,096,650