Mayor Adams, Commissioners Fish, Fritz, Leonard and Saltzman.

This historical moment has been long in coming.

A Latino presence in what is now the United States goes back to Spanish settlement in the sixteenth century.

In the State of Oregon, Lynn Stephen and Marcela Mendoza document the presence of the earliest Mexican migrants as mule-packers, miners and vaqueros (cowboys) who brought their trade from what was greater Mexico to the U.S. mule packers who moved supplies from northern California as far north as the Illinois River Valley in Oregon.

In the 1850's Mexican mule packers supplied the Second Regiment Oregon Mounted Volunteers.

Around that time Portland and Portland Public Schools were being established.

And just last month voters in Portland Public Schools elected the first Latino Americano of Mexican descent to the school board in its 158 year history.

Although the campaign did not specifically call on voters to make history by electing a Latino, their vote added a new page to the history of the district and gave a visible presence to Latinos in our community.

Today, you are about to write another page in the 158 year history of Portland, the visible recognition of a Latino Americano of Mexican descent by renaming a street after Cesar E. Chavez.

I congratulate you in advance of the vote for making this mark in history.

And I want to personally thank you for resisting the pressure not to take this step forward. In his letter from the Birmingham jail Dr. Martin Luther King Jr, recalled how people were calling his activities "unwise and untimely."

We hear many of these same arguments from opponents of the name change right after expressing their support for Cesar Chavez.

Yet these arguments remind us of what Dr. King described as "the white moderate, who is more devoted to "order" than to justice; who prefers a negative peace which is the absence of tension to a positive peace which is the presence of justice; who constantly says: "I agree with you in the goal you seek, but I cannot agree with your methods of direct action"; who paternalistically believes he can set the timetable for another man's freedom; who lives by a mythical concept of time and who constantly advises the Negro to wait for a "more convenient season."

Thank you for recognizing that wait is not an acceptable response, and that the moral and political leadership of public officials is as important today as it was for the struggle for civil rights led by Dr. King. The protection and recognition of civil rights would not have been achieved if during those troubled times everyone had waited for an act of congress or a popular vote of approval.

Today, the Mexican mule packers of the 1850, the Vaqueros of the 1860's, the Oregon born Mexicans in the early 1900's, the rail road workers, farmworkers, throughout the last century, as well as all the construction workers, manufacturing, service workers, educators, professionals, and our children can feel the joy of an initial step of visible recognition for their work by your renaming a street for Cesar Chavez.

Thank you again. Put your hand in each others' hand and prove that Yes we can—Sí se puede!

Martín González Martínez

Portland Public School Board member

June 23, 2009

Council Presentation June 23, 2009

My name is Tom Potter and I live a few blocks from 39th Avenue.

I am asking you today to vote to rename 39th Avenue as Cesar E. Chavez Blvd.

Your decision will not please everyone, but that is the nature of your work. You must weigh the information presented and choose a course of action that is best for our community – now and into the future.

Let me be so bold as to suggest one marker that is at the heart of this issue for many of us – How to make Portland a more welcoming and inclusive community.

Portland's demographics are changing rapidly and Latinos are responsible for much of that change and growth. They have added beautiful new hues to the color spectrum and ethnicity of Portland and have worked hard to enrich our community.

How does a city respond to these changes? What tangible things can we do to demonstrate our commitment to providing an environment that recognizes the talents and contributions of all people?

Street naming is an honor bestowed upon people who have made Portland a better place by their efforts. Until recently, people of color have not been recognized with Portland street names. Over the last two decades we have acknowledged the achievements of Bill Naito, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Rosa Parks by naming streets in their honor. Sometimes, they are homegrown like Bill, and other times they are leaders who have provided avenues of opportunity and inspiration for people throughout our nation to achieve their dreams for themselves, their families and community.

Renaming a street is not to be taken lightly. It is a very public recognition that everyone has something to contribute, and thus, we open the doors to hope and opportunity a little further for all people.

I ask you to give something back to a community—a community that's given us an American hero, a labor leader, and an American of humble origins. Give us all a street named Cesar E. Chavez Blvd.

Good evening Mayor and Commisioners. My name is Armando Gonzales. On behalf of CECBC, thank you for the opportunity to present to you this evening about why renaming a Portland city street in honor of Cesar E. Chavez is important.

I was born in Eastern Oregon. I was raised and worked as a migrant farmworker for many years. I experienced first hand the conditions that Cesar Chavez worked to change. My parents taught us by example to give back to those that had less and to be involved to ensure a strong and safe community.

I have been a resident of Pórtland for the last 23 years, I am high school counselor and a life long activist for change.

Cesar Chavez plac\yed a very important role in my life, which is why I am here today. An environmentalist, Chavez also advocated for the health and welfare of all people and he believed in civil rights and justice for all.

We have worked through a very long process, and now we are at critical juncture. Becuase of all of our efforts, we have seen countless articles in our newspapers, blogs, facebook and other news medium which has helped enlightened our community about who Cesar was and his many contributions to our country.

Let me state some facts about Cesar. He was an American. He was born in Yuma, Arizona in 1927. He serverd our country in the armed forces.

Cesar E. Chavez struggled for change, a change toward a better life for all communities, better working & living conditions, a decrease in the hazardous pesticides entering our food supply and a right for workers to form unions.

In 1994, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom posthumously by President Bill Clinton, who said : "Mr Chavez faced formidable, often violent opposition with dignity and nonviolence. The late Senator Robert Kennedy called him "one of the greatest heroic figures of our time."

Through his courage, Cesar Chavez taught us that a single voice could change our country and that together, we can make America a stronger, more just and more prosperous nation.

While there has been broad agreement about honoring Cesar Chavez, we have heard a variety of reasons of why we should not move forward and rename a street in his honor. As I have listened over the last two years, I have heard a recurring concern about change. Change is usually uncomfortable, and at times it may feel "scary and confusing". This two year process has brought out many of these emotions.

Our country over these last few years has seen monumental change. We can choose to embrace change that will make our community stronger and more inclusive or fight it at every turn. Change is inevitable. In fact, change is necessary to improve our communities.

For these reasons, we are seeking your support in naming a street for Cesar E. Chavez.

The name change will not rewrite Portland's rich past, instead it will acknowledge the lesser known stories and cultures that have always been part of the fabric of this community.

We are asking for just one street of 4,000 to honor an American hero and civil rights leader.

In 2008, this country experienced a historic event in history. As Americans, we overcame old barriers and elected our first African American President. Let's keep the spirit of change alive and continue to move forward as a multicultural nation...and as a multicultural city.

Mayor and Commissioners, please know that we understand that this is a very difficult decision before you.

This is a monumental event in our community. So far it has taken two attempts and nearly three years of hard work by dedicated people. We have followed the existing code that has never been used. We have chosen to turn the other cheek when faced with demeaning comments or hurtful words. We have put our hearts and our highest intentions forward.

I urge you to have the strength to do the right thing and vote yes to our request to honor Cesar E. Chavez with this name change.

Thank you.

Adendum:

During our two year campaign to bring change to Portland, we heard from a variety of supporters from Portland and beyond our city limits. And while the arguments opposing our campaign often portrayed our efforts as strictly as a Latino or farmworker issue, the following comments represent the breadth of opinions favoring this name change:

From Salem, Oregon, Mr. Bartola Marquez wrote:

It is my deepest belief that honoring Cesar E Chavez is one of the greatest things the City of Portland can do in taking progressive steps forward to showing its diverse community respect.

Walter B. from NY, wrote:

This would send a great message to all youth around the country to embrace the latino heritage in America but also to inspire young people to continue defending the American DREAM!

From Portland, Oregon Jack Herbert shared:

What we name our streets shows our values, if we have them. Airport, commercial, etc... When we name them after people who have devoted their lives to human rights for those who are oppressed, we keep reminding ourselves of our most important value.

Also from Portland, Meter Shaw wrote:

Cesar Chavez was one of our greatest Americans, standing up for people's rights in the face of seemingly insurmountable odds. He is a reminder that justice may be found if we work for it. This reminder should always be known, and renaming a street for him will be a step in that direction.

A Portland teacher Bill Bigelow also wrote:

And how wonderful to name a substantial Portland thoroughfare after Cesar Chavez. As a teacher, I'd see it as a gift. A study of Chavez's life has so much to offer young people. His commitment to non-violence. His capacity to knit together different racial and linguistic groups. His dedication to people who had been marginalized and taken for granted for so long. His expansive vision of the labor movement -- that unions should be about social betterment. And as Portland struggles to embrace its new identity as home to large numbers of Latinos, what better way to announce our commitment to multiculturalism and anti-racism? .

Hatie Larrouy from Portland wrote:

As a public health nurse I know that his work had a huge impact on the health and civil rights of many Americans. I would be happy to shop on a street named for Cesar Chavez.

And John McKee from Portland wrote these words:

Naming a street in honor of Cesar Chavez has profound meaning for all Oregonians. He was a great American who should be remembered as an important leader and role model for future generations.
