MEMORANDUM

December 29, 2009

Re: Ordinance to authorize a grant to Portland Farmers Market at council on January 6, 2010

Dear Council colleagues,

Attached, please find an ordinance authorizing a $15,000 grant to the Portland Farmers Market to implement a waste reduction and diversion program at the Saturday PSU Market.

The Portland Farmers Market at PSU is the city's largest farmers market, attracting upwards of 15,000 visitors each week. Those visitors create more than sixty 45-gallon bags of waste each week, according to a 2008 Office of Sustainable Development audit—which also found that 90 percent of that waste could be diverted to recycling and composting streams. With this grant, which was funded as part of the FY 2009-2010 budget, the Portland Farmers Market will be able to expand their commitment to sustainability by launching a "green market" Wastewise program to educate market visitors and vendors about waste reduction and diversion. The Portland Farmers Market will also set up a waste collection system to sort compostables and recyclables, and divert them from landfills.

In year one of the program, PFM will divert 50 percent of waste generated at the Saturday PSU Market, with a 90 percent goal by year three. By year three of this program, the Portland Farmers Market also pledges all markets will be "plastic bag free zones."

Please contact Amy Ruiz in my office with any questions, at 503-823-3578.

Yours,

Mayor Sam Adams
