AGENDA

1. Introductions / New attendees / Approval of minutes (Marc Jolin)	3:00-3:10
2. Updates and Announcements <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Census 2010/Complete Count Committee• Summer Increase in Youth Travelers update• Oregon Coalition on Housing & Homelessness Annual Conference – April 22-23rd, 2010	3:10-3:30
3. “Faith in Action: Addressing and Ending Homelessness” For many of us, the work we do to help individuals and families move out of homelessness is motivated by our personal beliefs, political convictions, and/or sense of calling. This is especially true of the many faith-based agencies who make positive impacts in the lives of homeless Portlanders through a broad range of efforts, ranging from providing basic needs to advocacy. In this discussion, faith-based agencies will share about what they do, successful approaches, and areas where more coordination or partnerships are needed to improve the broader community’s efforts to end homelessness. Presenters will include: Catholic Charities, Compassion Connect, Downtown Chapel, Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon, and The Salvation Army. Q & A will follow.	3:30-4:15
4. Breakout for discussion: What are some concrete steps or actions that can be taken to strengthen coordination among faith-based agencies, public, and nonprofit providers?	4:15-4:35
5. Other Announcements	4:35-5:00

Next CCEH Meeting: Wednesday, April 21th, 2010

3:00-5:00pm, Room 202, First United Methodist Church
