RESOLUTION No.

As Amended

Prescribe a public hearing process in accordance with Section 13-302 of the City of Portland Charter (Resolution)

WHEREAS, on December 8th, 2010 City Council appointed members to the 2011 Charter Review Commission as required by Section 13-301 of the Portland City Charter; and

WHEREAS, the Charter Review Commission has been diligently working on possible amendments to the Charter; and

WHEREAS, according to Section 13-302 Council should prescribe a public hearing process before proposed charter amendments are submitted to voters, and

WHEREAS, to provide interested members of the public the opportunity to provide meaningful comments on proposed charter amendments, the Council sets out the following public hearing process for the Charter Review Commission.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, Council, in accordance with the directives of Portland City Charter Section 13-302, prescribes the following public hearing process for the 2011 Charter Commission:

- With the exception of the housekeeping items as described below, all Charter amendments proposed by the Charter Commission shall be presented to the public at two or more public hearings prior to the Charter Commission voting whether or not to submit the proposed charter amendments to the voters of the City of Portland.
- Housekeeping Amendments as specified in existing Subcommittee documents [Sections 2-105(51), 2-105(54), 2-105(49), 2-105(50), 1-106, 2-108, 2-206(b), 2-607, 2-105, 13-301, Chapter 14 – Exposition Recreation Commission] and as agreed for forwarding to the public hearing by the Commission, shall be presented to the public in at least one or more public hearings prior to the Charter Commission voting whether or not to submit the proposed charter amendments to the voters of the City of Portland.
- The Charter Commission shall make the text of the proposed charter amendment and a brief impartial narrative summarizing the proposed amendment written by the City Attorney available for public review and comment at least one week before the hearing on the amendment. The Commission shall accept written comments from the public from the time the text of the proposed charter amendment is made available for review until one week after the public hearing on that amendment. The Charter Commission may take a vote to submit a proposed amendment to the voters once the time for accepting written comments set forth in this paragraph has elapsed.
- At the public hearing(s) the Charter Commission members shall take oral and written public comments from any interested member of the public subject to time limitations placed by the Commission.

- The public hearing(s) should be conducted either on weekday evenings after 6 PM or on weekends between 9 AM and 4 PM.
- The City Council encourages the Charter Commission to televise its hearing(s) on public access cable channels.
- The Council encourages to Charter Commission to hold its public hearing(s) in different geographical locations in Portland.
- The Office of Neighborhood Involvement (ONI) will provide notice of the hearing(s) via the ONI notification email list to all of those subscribed. The Charter Commission's staff will send a press release regarding the hearings to its regular press release list, and will send notice of the hearing to the all of those on the Charter Commission's interested persons notification list.
- Notice of the public hearing(s) time and location shall be provided at least two weeks before the hearings and should occur in fully-accessible locations.
- Comments can be in writing by letter or email, on the Charter Commission's website, or via telephone to the office where the Charter Commission's staff works.
- The Charter Commission shall review and discuss public input prior to voting whether to refer measures to the ballot.
- The Charter Commission may make changes in the proposed language based on public input prior to the final vote by the Commission.
