

7/20/11

I come before you to tell you a story, it is a tale of three people who sit on this council but not for long. There is an election in 2012 and in January of 2013 there will be a new mayor and two new commissioners. This I tell you so you may pack your bags of tricks and get ready to go home.

You invited many of us here to present our views on the Joint Terrorist Task Force, JTTF. We came and group after group told you not to rejoin with the FBI. We asked you to stay away from an organization that spies on its citizens, that have no rules for they will change them at will. Before that shame you invited us here to give you our views on the new Sit-Lie, (Lie) ordinance that you were considering---we came, we told you that it was a bad ordinance, you voted against us.

There are wonderful things going on all around the world, people are in the streets in Egypt, Tunisia, and Syria. The cries for basic rights are loud. If you try, you can hear the wind that carries the pleas of the many---here we have our wonderful freedoms, except when our mayor decides we must be silent. We are not allowed to show basic appreciation for a well delivered presentation, we cannot applaud, no noise allowed. We can move our fingers, maybe our arms, but no noise. The first time I witnessed educated and professional people moving their hands I thought they all needed to go to the bathroom and was mesmerized, it was a sight to behold. So I come to bid you farewell, you have a year to get your resume ready, to move on and believe me I will applaud with gusto, like-----applaud!!!!
