Jan Campbell – Lifetime Achievement

I am nominating Jan for her lifetime dedication to making the lives of persons with disabilities better. Jan is knowledgeable in so many areas impacting people with physical and mental disabilities, it is difficult to say what her biggest achievements have been. But she is truly the go-to person relative to accessibility.

Jan has worked for year in the area of civil and human rights for persons with disabilities. She has chaired numerous committees, boards and commissions including the Oregon Advocacy Center, Chair of Tri-Met's Committee on Accessible Transportation and Chair of Portland's Disability Advisory Committee, as well as a member of the Oregon Disabilities Commission and Women with Disabilities Health Equity Coalition. On top of it all, she is truly one of the nicest people I have ever met and deserves this honor.
