Hi Karla,

I'd like to change my topic. I'm going to speak to council regarding the role the city can play in improving Portland's education, so that Portland can be more attractive to new business ventures and investment.

I may provide a small packet of materials as well.

Thank you,
Michael Van Kleeck

difficult for me to convince potential partners that Portland is a good place to invest in business. I would like to ask council to take aggressive steps to clean up downtown, both the empty and derelict buildings downtown and the social conditions that are visible to my partners walking around downtown. Our city is very sick right now and despite the tremendously high taxes and water rates I pay, council is not taking sufficient steps to make Downtown Portland a place to do business.
