Delivered to the City Council of Portland on 02/10/2010

Good Morning Ladies and Gentle of the Council.

We come before you today to bring sad news; our city will be visited by a dangerous human being by the name of Karl Rove. He may not yet be here, but he is definitely coming tonight in the darkness. He will be at the Concert Hall, 1037 SW Broadway at 7:00 PM.

We have come here today to demand you have no contact with this violator of our Constitution. We know that seems to be asking alot from this council so we would ask at the very least you not socialize with a man who someday will face a judge for the most sinister of crimes. His crimes may well include depriving tens of thousands of Americans the right to vote by a contentious act called "Caging." This scheme has been well documented, it resulted in removal of black service men from voting rolls because they happened to be serving overseas in a war zone. When misleading mail arrived at their homes from the Republican Party, failure to return the mail led to voter registration challenges concentrated in Democratic-leaning neighborhoods.

The outing of a CIA agent, Valerie Plame, to get even with her husband Joe Wilson, is well known. What is not available is how many lost their lives because of that act of treason. The answer is classified but you can just imagine what a foreign government would do to their agents who were dealing with the CIA.

The list of crimes against this man is almost without comparison, he is in a space reserved for the worst of the worst. Benedict Arnold, Judas, and Nixon come to mind.

I am not here just as the Lone-Vet, I also represent Individuals for Justice. Standing with me tonight at our protest will be Veterans for Peace, Code Pink, the Pissed off Grannies will be there. Cindy Sheehan, David Swanson, Veterans Against Torture, Peace of the Action and others have endorsed our protest of what we consider a person who should be brought before a judge and not making millions of dollars advising us of his opinions.

karl rove will receive about $25-30,000.00 and add that amount to his millions he is making touring the country

You may ignore our plea, but remember EX-Senator Gordon Smith ignored us for a time.

Thank you for the opportunity to speak to you this morning and have a peaceful evening
