Mr. B. E. Palmer,
Superintendent, Union Pacific System,
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter H-930-4, lease covering underground crossing at Benson Park, will be authorized ^{there} Wednesday morning at the regular Council meeting. Owing to the legal time required, the ordinance could not come up for its final passage prior to this time.

Yours very truly,

MAYOR

Attention: Hon. Geo. H. Baker, Mayor.

Gentlemen:

We have been endeavoring for some time to get return of agreements with City covering under grade crossing at our bridge No. 50 near Benson Park, which was the subject of my letter of January 10th and my recent letter of March 7th.

Will you please advise me in the premises.

Yours truly,

Superintendent.

Mr. B. E. Palmer, Sup't.,
Union Pacific System,
Portland, Ore.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of March 27th, File H 930-4, relative to agreement between the City and the Union Pacific System covering under grade crossing at Bridge No. 50 near Benson Park, will say that this agreement was sent to Mr. Spencer on January 31st, and duplicate copy, duly signed was returned and filed with the Auditor of the City of Portland on February 13th. I have communicated with Mr. Spencer by telephone and he advised me that the copy of agreement was now filed in his office.

Trusting that this information will clear
the question, I am,

Yours very truly,
