3. Coordinated Care Organization (CCO) Presentation (Sandra Clark, Health Share of Oregon) Ms. Clark will provide an overview of state healthcare legislation and the CCO model of care, including the CCO purpose, agencies involved and services to be provided. She will highlight important dates for the implementation and discuss how the model will directly affect vulnerable populations, particularly those who are experiencing homelessness and/or uninsured.	3:30-4:00
4. Jennifer Ho, Deputy Director, U.S. Interagency Council on Homelessness (USICH) Special guest Jennifer Ho will present on the work of USICH and progress on Opening Doors , the nation's first comprehensive federal plan to prevent and end homelessness. Ms. Ho led development of the federal plan, and has been instrumental in securing resources to end homelessness through improved coordination with healthcare and other mainstream services. She serves as the USICH liaison to the U.S. Departments of Health and Human Services, Education, and Agriculture, and the Social Security Administration, and is the point person on issues related to family homelessness.  Ms. Ho will also speak about anticipated changes to the upcoming federal landscape of housing and ending homelessness.
