GRANT
Founding and Endowing
THE LELAND STANFORD JUNIOR
UNIVERSITY

When the illustrious and noble-minded Leland Stanford died, he left behind him a vast estate, the bulk of which he bequeathed to the State of California, to be used for the purpose of founding and endowing a great university in his honor. The Legislature of California, in response to the wishes of the people, accepted the bequest, and the University of California was founded. Leland Stanford Junior University is the result of the generous and noble spirit of Leland Stanford.
