I, Rey Espana, a budget advisory committee member for the Portland Housing Bureau, do hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge, I do not have a conflict of interest<sup>1</sup>, as a result of any financial or other interest on my part or that of any member of my immediate family, nor of my partner(s). Further, I certify that if I am affiliated with an organization that receives funding from PHB, has received funding in the last 3 years, or intends to seek funding from PHB in the next year, I have declared this fact in the section below or immediately upon my knowledge of the actual or potential conflict. In the event I declare a conflict of interest I understand I may participate in the discussion, but, if there is a vote, I shall recuse myself.

I will independently advise PHB in its development of its FY 2012-13 budget request and am not unfairly prejudiced in any regard.

<sup>1</sup>A conflict of interest is identified as a situation, in which a Committee Member has, or appears to have, a financial relationship with a recipient of PHB funding, or has a family relationship with a recipient of PHB funding.

A family relationship with a recipient of PHB funding means that the committee member is related to that funding recipient by marriage, or domestic partnership, and includes relationships such as children, stepchildren, parents, grandparents, grandchildren, brothers, sisters, fathers-in-law, mothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, and brothers-in-law.

Financial relationships include involvement of the committee member and the recipient of PHB funding in a current partnership, joint venture, company, or corporation and any other relationship that could make it appear that the committee member would obtain a monetary benefit if a favorable recommendation were given.
