

Fairness Matters

Housing discrimination based on any form of religion isn't just unfair - it's against the law. If you feel that you've been denied the sale, rental or financing of a home because of religion, race, color, national origin, sex, familial status or disability, report it to HUD or your local fair housing center.

Here are some possible signs of housing discrimination:

- "I'll show you neighborhoods with mosques."
- "We only take people who speak English clearly."
- "You might be more comfortable living elsewhere."

Nos Dijeron: "Vivan

Tenemos derechos. Llamamos a HUD.

Encontramos un apartamento de tres habitaciones que nos encantó en un buen vecindario con buenas escuelas y un hermoso parque. Pero el propietario nos dijo que viviéramos en otro sitio que sea mejor para una familia como la nuestra. Presentamos una queja con HUD y ahora tenemos un hermoso lugar donde vivir.

Estos son algunos signos claros de discriminación de vivienda en contra de familias con niños:

- Permitir sólo un niño por habitación
- Cobrar un depósito de seguro más alto para familias con niños
- Limitar a las familias con niños al primer piso o a determinados edificios
- Negarse a alquilar a familias con niños

So I did.
I called HUD.

I found the perfect apartment near a park and public transportation. I asked for a reasonable accommodation for my service dog, but the landlord told me "no pets - try someplace else." So I called HUD and found out it's illegal for a housing provider to prohibit service animals. I filed a complaint, and now my dog and I have a great place to live.

UNFAIR AND UN-AMERICAN.

He fought overseas for his country and shouldn't have to fight housing discrimination at home. The federal Fair Housing Act prohibits housing discrimination because of disability, color, sex, religion, national origin, familial status or race. If you suspect housing discrimination, contact HUD or your local fair housing center.
