PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT

8) Was public involvement included in the development of this Council item (e.g. ordinance, resolution, or report)? Please check the appropriate box below:

☒ YES: Please proceed to Question #9.

☐ NO: Please, explain why below; and proceed to Question #10.

9) If “YES,” please answer the following questions:

a) What impacts are anticipated in the community from this proposed Council item?

Survivors will have more options empowering them to escape human trafficking, which will reduce the number of people engaged in prostitution areas such as 82nd Avenue.

b) Which community and business groups, under-represented groups, organizations, external government entities, and other interested parties were involved in this effort, and when and how were they involved?

Dozens of individuals and groups testified during the spring of 2013, advocating for more funding during the City Budget process. Provider groups and leaders in addressing human trafficking, including the Portland Police Bureau and the Human Rights Commission, participated in a Task Force meeting convened by City Commissioner Amanda Fritz and County Commissioner Diane McKeel, to propose the most urgent actions that will address both immediate and long term needs on this issue. Commissioner Fritz then refined the proposals working with providers of the services identified as most crucial.

c) How did public involvement shape the outcome of this Council item?

The projects identified in the request are the direct result of the feedback received during the Budget process and the Task Force discussion

d) Who designed and implemented the public involvement related to this Council item?

Commissioner Fritz

e) Primary contact for more information on this public involvement process (name, title, phone, email):

Cristina Nieves, Executive Assistant to Commissioner Fritz, 503-823-4124

10) Is any future public involvement anticipated or necessary for this Council item? Please describe why or why not.

Reports to Council will be submitted by project providers in April 2014 and August 2014. Commissioner Fritz will post the reports, to allow the Council and the public to review results and discuss next steps.

Mayor Charlie Hales
