

ORDINANCE No. 186384

*Amend grant agreement with Janus Youth Programs, Inc to include an additional $120,000 to provide shelter beds and treatment for juvenile human trafficking victims (Ordinance; amend Contract No. 30003686)

The City of Portland ordains:

Section 1. The Council Finds:

1. At least 469 children were exploited as commercial sex workers in Portland between 2009 and 2013 according to a 2013 study by Portland State University commissioner by US Attorney Amanda Marshall.
2. Twenty seven percent (27%) of the exploited children were African-American, a percentage five times greater than the percentage of African Americans in Multnomah County.
3. Many more women, men and transgender individuals over the age of 18 are forced into prostitution in Portland, which has received national attention as a hub for human trafficking.
4. Nearly 1 in 25 men in Portland solicited sex for pay online in a 24 hour period, according to a 2013 Arizona State University study.
5. Portland was ranked second in the nation in rescued child survivors of human trafficking, according to a 2010 study highlighted by Dan Rather on 60 minutes.
6. Janus Youth Services staff estimate that for every young survivor they serve, ten more victims remain on the streets due to lack of services.
7. The City of Portland cut funding for services to victims of human trafficking by $117,000 in the FY 2013-14 Adopted Budget.
8. Of the many life-and-death needs in Portland, assistance to youth and young adults age 18 – 25 wishing to escape from the slavery of human trafficking is among the most urgent.
9. Providers report that both boys and girls are entering the path to sexual exploitation as early as middle school. Additional education targeted to vulnerable populations in high-risk middle schools would provide children with the training they need to promote healthy behavior and reduce the risk of human trafficking.
10. The Sexual Abuse Resource Center (SARC) provides extensive support to juvenile human trafficking victims through a 24-hour crisis line.
11. Janus Youth Programs through Athena House provides shelter beds and a safe place for juvenile human trafficking victims.

188081
NOW, THEREFORE, the Council directs:

- a. The Mayor is authorized to amend grant agreement 30003686 to provide additional funding in the amount of $120,000 to provide for shelter beds and enhanced services of SARC for juvenile human trafficking victims.
- b. The Mayor and Auditor are hereby authorized to draw and deliver payment chargeable to the Fiscal Year 2013-14 Budget.

Section 2. The council declares that an emergency exists because a delay in funding could impact Janus' ability to provide continuous safe places for juvenile human trafficking victims and essential treatment services; therefore, this ordinance shall be in full force and in effect after its passage by council.
