PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT

8) Was public involvement included in the development of this Council item (e.g. ordinance, resolution, or report)? Please check the appropriate box below:

☒ YES: Please proceed to Question #9.

☐ NO: Please, explain why below; and proceed to Question #10.

9) If "YES," please answer the following questions:

a) What impacts are anticipated in the community from this proposed Council item?

It is anticipated that the information learned during this training will lead to increased understanding and better interactions between the Portland Police Bureau and its customers.

b) Which community and business groups, under-represented groups, organizations, external government entities, and other interested parties were involved in this effort, and when and how were they involved?

The Community Police Relations Committee, a subcommittee within the City's Human Rights Commission, and the Police Bureau conducted research and reviews of other agency models for racial profile training and equity program development. Command-level managers completed a similar training in 2012.

c) How did public involvement shape the outcome of this Council item?

The Police Bureau has worked with the CPRC to develop training for command staff and sergeants that focuses on racial profiling and bias in the workplace with a special focus on law enforcement

d) Who designed and implemented the public involvement related to this Council item?

The Community Police Relations Committee of the Human Rights Commission was instrumental in this process.

e) Primary contact for more information on this public involvement process (name, title, phone, email):

Acting Captain Matt Wagenknecht, 503.823.0251

10) Is any future public involvement anticipated or necessary for this Council item? Please describe why or why not.

No future public involvement is anticipated or necessary for this item as it is particular to a specific event.

Michael Reese, Chief of Police
