Ms. Moore-Love:

I write to address the council about inviting the USS Zumwalt to head-up the 2015 Fleet Week part of the Rose Festival within the next five weeks.

As the Oregonian article linked below relays, I served on Admiral Zumwalt's personal staff when he was Chief of Naval Operations. He was the best boss that I ever had. The christening of the Zumwalt has been rescheduled for April 12 in Bath, Maine. I have been gifted travel funds to attend the christening, and have dinner with the Secretary of the Navy. I would love to personally relay Portland's invitation to the man who can make it happen.

The Zumwalt will be home ported in San Diego, the same place the last US Navy ship that headed Fleet Week, the USS William J. Lawrence, also a guided missile destroyer, is docked.

One more thing. I was shocked to read your name as my youngest sister was named Carla Moore Maxwell, and died at 17 due to congenital heart problems.

Best,

Fred
