The City of Portland ordains:

1. The Center for Public Service and the Mark O. Hatfield School of Government at Portland State University (PSU) host several highly competitive fellowships that are designed to bring national class talent to Oregon public enterprises.

The program is designed to build public sector capacity in Oregon by increasing the number of leaders who are devoted to public service.
3. Each Hatfield Fellow serves an eight-month stint in the public sector, working on new or unique project-specific activities. The cost is $35,000, and there is no commitment to the fellow beyond the eight months.
4. City of Portland Bureaus have identified promising Hatfield Resident Fellows to work on a number of projects of citywide significance over the next eight months.

- a. The Mayor and City Auditor are hereby authorized to execute an intergovernmental agreement between the City and Portland State University in substantially the same form as Exhibit A, to allow City Bureaus to bring on Hatfield Resident Fellows.
- b. The Mayor and Auditor are hereby authorized to draw and deliver warrants payable to Portland State University, not to exceed $35,000, chargeable to participating City Bureaus.

Section 2.
