7. BACKGROUND/ANALYSIS

The Center for Public Service and the Mark O. Hatfield School of Government at Portland State University (PSU) host several highly competitive fellowships that are designed to bring national class talent to Oregon public enterprises. The Hatfield Resident Fellows program is Fellowship designed to provide training and leadership development opportunities for candidates interested in the public sector.

Each Hatfield Fellow serves an eight-month stint in the public sector, working on new or unique project-specific activities. The cost is $35,000, and there is no commitment to the fellow beyond the eight months. City of Portland Bureaus have identified promising Hatfield Resident Fellows to work on a number of projects of citywide significance over the next eight months.

The program is designed to build public sector capacity in Oregon by increasing the number of leaders who are devoted to public service. There is no public involvement included in the development of this ordinance and no future public involvement anticipated or necessary as this agreement is for internal City government services.

8. FINANCIAL IMPACT

The $35,000 agreement will fund one fellow for eight months. Funding for the agreement is included in City Bureaus' FY 2014-15 Adopted Budget appropriations. This action will not generate revenues and there are no staffing requirements or change in appropriations.

9. RECOMMENDATION/ACTION REQUESTED

I recommend that the Mayor and City Council approve this ordinance.
