

ORDINANCE No. 186593

*Approve an Intergovernmental Agreement with Portland State University for the Oregon Fellows Program for training and leadership development for candidates interested in the public sector (Ordinance)

The City of Portland ordains:

Section 1. The Council finds:

1. The Center for Public Service and the Mark O. Hatfield School of Government at Portland State University (PSU) host several highly competitive fellowships that are designed to bring national class talent to Oregon public enterprises.
2. The Oregon Fellows program is Fellowship designed to provide training and leadership development opportunities for candidates interested in the public sector. The program is designed to build public sector capacity in Oregon by increasing the number of leaders who are devoted to public service.
3. Each Oregon Fellow serves a 10 week stint in the public sector, working on new or unique project-specific activities. The cost is $9,000, and there is no commitment to the fellow beyond the 10 weeks.
4. City of Portland Bureaus have identified promising Oregon Fellows to work on a number of projects of citywide significance.

NOV/, THEREFORE, the Council directs:

- a. The Mayor and City Auditor are hereby authorized to execute an intergovernmental agreement between the City and Portland State University in substantially the same form as Exhibit A, to allow City Bureaus to bring on Oregon Fellows.
- b. The Mayor and Auditor are hereby authorized to draw and deliver warrants payable to Portland State University, not to exceed $9,000, chargeable to participating City Bureaus.

Section 2. The Council declares that an emergency exists because it is necessary to get final approval to bring on Oregon Fellows in order to ensure that the City is able to recruit the fellows most suited to the City's project needs; therefore this ordinance shall be in full force and effect upon passage.
