

From: Linore Blackstone [<mailto:llblackstone@comcast.net>]

Sent: Wednesday, September 17, 2014 9:24 AM

To: Planning and Sustainability Commission

Subject: Protect West Hayden Island

Well, a quotation from the poem, The Last One by W.S. Merwin, American poet, is appropriate here:

Well they'd made up their minds to be everywhere because why not.

Everywhere was theirs because they thought so.

Why the reconsideration of allowing industrial use of West Hayden Island? Why the switch?
Hoping the community would not be paying attention? Where is the integrity in the process?

I am appalled at your tactics and don't understand your values.

Linore Blackstone

llblackstone@comcast.net

1745 NE 49th Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97213