

Sister Mary Louise Volk, 1933-1992 Mother of St. Francis Park

An elephant noticed a tiny hummingbird lying on its back with its feet above its head. "What are you doing?" the elephant asked. "I was told that the sky might fall today, so I am getting ready to hold it up," replied the hummingbird.

The elephant chuckled. "You really think that a hummingbird like you can hold up the sky should it fall?"

"Not alone," the hummingbird replied. "But each of us must do what we can."

~ Chinese Parable

Buckman--Two Weeks Ago--Temperature: 91°

Behind the veil of doubt and concern, this is what you and your family were missing at St. Francis Park!

SAVE ST. FRANCIS PARK!

