Presenter names: Kirk Hall, Erin Janssens, Jeff Baer, Jim Coker, Aaron Beck

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

Accept the report. This is the fourth annual ICC report to Council, featuring reports from the four Project Oversight Committees (POCs) on the major accomplishments and occurrences of their projects during FY 2013/14.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

This action does not impact City revenues, does not impose any costs to the City, and does not impact staffing levels.

Community impacts and community involvement:

This report is to inform City Council on the progress of the GO Bond Independent Citizen Committee (ICC). The community benefits from the citizen oversight of the voter-approved public safety bond projects.

The committee is made up of five public members, each appointed by a City Council member. These community members meet quarterly and will continue meeting until all bond proceeds are expended. During each meeting, the quarterly report is reviewed by the community members, and the leads from each project field questions and provide explanations on the use of the funds. Currently, Commissioner Saltzman and Commissioner Fritz's appointed seats are vacant, occupied previously by Scott Warnick and Steven Shane, respectively. We are currently working with them to fill the vacancies.

The public committee members each reviewed a draft of the attached annual report, and provided feedback and comments.

Council Resolution #36900 stated that:

Portland's taxpayers expect transparency and accountability in the use of these funds and this will be achieved in part through the appointment of a five member independent citizen committee comprised of each City Council member's appointee that would report annually to the City Council and quarterly to the City's Chief Administrative Officer.

Measure 26-117 also contained language directing the creation of an independent citizen oversight committee:

The Council shall also appoint a five-member citizen committee with relevant expertise to review bond expenditures and provide annual reports to Council on whether such expenditures adhere to voter-approved uses. Each Council member shall recommend one member to serve on the citizen committee.

The Council presentation will include remarks from CAO Fred Miller, ICC Committee Chair Kirk Hall, and each of the Project Oversight Committee (POC) leads.
