COMMUNITY SOURCED CAPITAL

Fund the world you want to live in Plywerk is a growing manufacturing business. Financial and social capital from CSC helps them secure new equipment, create relationships with customers and spread the word about their product. They're just one of the businesses where we turned community into capital.

CSC expands the traditional definition of capital to include a social dimension in lending. We provide mission-aligned capital to boost economic growth and benefit local communities. See more about turning your social capital into financial capital at communitysourcedcapital.com.

Turn social capital into financial capital.

Share your business story with us and we'll work with you to turn community support into a loan for your growth. CSC provides the technology, marketing and administrative know-how to make borrowing money from the people around you possible.

Community Sourced Capital connects you to people who want to see your business succeed. We built a way for communities to lend money to businesses they know and love.

CSC is a new way to connect to your customers, discover new friends and transform your business value.
