RACC Grant Opportunity: Expanding Cultural Access

UPDATED: 2/10/15

RACC seeks proposals from nonprofit organizations in Portland that are providing arts and culture programming and services for communities of color, immigrants, refugees, underserved neighborhoods such as East Portland, persons with disabilities, LGBTQ communities, and other under-represented populations. Approximately $50,000 will be awarded in grants ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 each, for projects taking place between July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016.

These grants are funded by Portland's Arts Education & Access Fund, approved by voters in 2012. Examples of NAYA Family Center's 2014 Neerchokikoo Honoring Powwow, funded in part by RACC's Expanding Cultural Access grant program.
