Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

The proposed Ordinance will authorize the Director of PP&R to execute the agreement with American Healthways Services. Portland Parks and Recreation (PP&R) is dedicated to ensuring access to recreational and wellness opportunities for seniors in Portland. PP&R and American Healthways Services, LLC, have negotiated an agreement to promote the use of PP&R's fitness facilities to seniors. The proposed agreement calls for American Healthways Services to compensate PP&R for each visit to a community center by a participating senior in the American Healthways Services program. Participating seniors will receive free access to PP&R's fitness centers. PP&R community centers included in the program: Charles Jordan Community Center, Matt Dishman Community Center, Southwest Community Center, Mt Scott Community Center and East Portland Community Center.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

American Healthways Services will compensate PP&R on a monthly basis with a maximum payment of $32.50 per program participant per month.

Community impacts and community involvement:

There will be positive impact for seniors who participate in the program.
