

I am an old guy and I think about these things. Twenty years from now would I want my grand kids to come to the banks of the Columbia and look at a huge industrial complex belching filth into the world and saying, "My grandpa helped get this thing here."? With respect for the good work you do, I think that's a question you ought to be asking yourselves. Please say no to Pembina.

Craig Heverly
4814 SE 30th Ave #131
Portland, OR 97202