Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

To continue to provide support for the Future Connect Scholarship program from Jul 2014 – June 2017. The program provides PCC students with tuition assistance and wrap around services designed to eliminate barriers to entering community college and obtaining a college dress or certificate or transferring to a 4-year college or university.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

This ordinance authorizes the execution of a grant with Portland Community College Foundation to provide $432,000 to the Future Connect Program. These funds were allocated in the FY 2014-2015 Adopted budget.

Community impacts and community involvement:

This ordinance does not impact the community, other than to provide for high schools who wish to participate in the Future Connect Program.
