Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

- This legislation authorizes the Chief of Police to enter into an agreement between the City and St. Joseph the Worker, Inc. Corporate Internship Program (SJWCIP) to furnish four student interns to the Portland Police Bureau.
- SJWCIP is an Oregon not-for-profit corporation organized for educational purposes. It administers a program to place high school students into corporate internships with Corporate/Community partners intended to further the education of its student workers.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

- This agreement creates no material short or long-term financial impacts for the City.
- The financial impact of this agreement is an increase in expense of $6,823.75 to be funded from existing Police Bureau General Fund appropriation
- No budgetary action is required.
- There is no current or future revenue impact.
- There is no current or future staffing level impact.
- The agreement will renew on an annual basis and may be cancelled by the bureau with notice to SJWCIP.

Community impacts and community involvement:

- The agreement will bring four student interns into the Police Bureau, which will provide work experience and development, exposure to the bureau, and may enhance the level of community engagement with young people in the City.
- The proposed legislation supports policies and goals of civic engagement between the Police Bureau and the community.
- The students involved in the internship program are enrolled in a college preparatory high school program in the North Portland geographic area.
- This contributes to city livability, enhancing educational opportunities for participating student interns.
- The bureau is not aware of any significant objections or concerns
