Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

Continued coverage for facilitation services to ensure we meet the DOJ required scheduling timelines.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

Funding is from existing Police Bureau appropriation.

Community impacts and community involvement:

The Police Review Board is an advisory body to the Chief of Police. The Review Board makes recommendations as to findings and proposed officer discipline to the Chief of Police. The Board reviews incidents and investigated complaints of alleged misconduct by non-probationary sworn officers. The Police Review Board is facilitated by a person who is not employed by the bureau and who is not a member of the board. The facilitator prepares a written statement to the Chief of Police of the recommended findings and proposed discipline and a summary of any policy, training, and/or investigation issues or concerns raised by the Police Review Board. These statements, in the form of a memo, are published to the Police Bureau's website twice annually for public review.
