Contact name: Tatiana Elejalde

Contact phone: 503-823-4432

Presenter name: N/A

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

The Portland Commission on Disability applied for and was awarded a grant by the Regional Arts & Culture Council for the Portland Disability Storytelling Project, which will result in videos of Portland community members from the Disability community sharing their cross-disability stories describing how the Americans with Disabilities Act and discrimination have impacted their lives.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

Discuss the impacts of the legislation relating to all of the following if relevant:

- There are no long-term financial impacts to the City.
- This action will increase the Office of Equity and Human Rights (OEHR) budget by $2,500.
- This legislation authorizes additional spending on the Portland Disability Storytelling Project for activities that were not originally budgeted.
- The expense is based on a reasonable estimate and will not be exceeded.
- This legislation will result in a $2,500 increase in current year expense and revenue. There are no longer-term changes.
- This legislation has no impact on staffing levels.
- This legislation accepts a grant award of $2,500 from the Regional Arts & Culture Council. There are no other financial obligations or benefits.

Community impacts and community involvement:

The Regional Arts & Culture Council grant awarded to the Portland Commission on Disability, will provide an opportunity to hear the voices and stories of Portland Disability community members, with the purpose of creating awareness of the institutional barriers that exist for people with disabilities in our community. By sharing these professionally video-recorded stories at citywide events and trainings, we can provide the awareness that leads to action and change in order to achieve a more equitable Portland for all members of our society.
