23.10.010 Purpose.

The purpose of this Chapter is to remove barriers to employment so that people with criminal histories can provide for themselves and their families; to reduce disparate impacts on people of color that result from the use of criminal history information in hiring and employment decisions; and to reduce recidivism through the reintroduction of formerly incarcerated persons into community life.

23.10.020 Definitions.

For purposes of this Chapter, the following definitions apply:

- A. "City" means the City of Portland as defined in Title 1 of the Code of the City of Portland.
- B. "Employer" means any person or entity who directly or through an agent employs another for a position being performed a majority of the time within the City of Portland, but does not include:
 - 1. The United States Government;
 - 2. The State of Oregon and any office, department, agency, authority, institution, association, society or other body of the state, including the legislature and the judiciary;
 - 3. Any political subdivision of the State of Oregon or any county, city, district, authority, public corporation or public entity other than the City of Portland; or
 - 4. Employers with fewer than six employees.
- C. "Employ" means to engage or use the personal service of another person on a full-time, part-time, temporary or seasonal basis, with or without pay, where the Employer reserves the right to control the means by which such service is performed.

- D. “Conditional Offer of Employment” means any offer for a position that is conditioned solely on:
1. The results of an Employer’s inquiry into or gathering of information about a person’s arrest or conviction history; and/or
 2. Some other contingency expressly communicated to the applicant at the time of the offer.

23.10.030 Use of Criminal History in Employment Decisions.

- A. It is an unlawful practice for an Employer to exclude an applicant from consideration solely because of the applicant’s criminal history.
- B. An Employer may consider an applicant’s criminal history in the hiring process only after making a Conditional Offer of Employment. An Employer violates this Chapter if an Employer accesses an applicant’s criminal history prior to making a Conditional Offer of Employment.
- C. It is not an unlawful practice for an Employer to rescind a Conditional Offer of Employment based upon an applicant’s criminal history if an Employer determines in good faith that a specific offense or conduct is job related for the position in question and consistent with business necessity.
- D. In making the determination of whether an applicant’s criminal history is job related for the position in question and consistent with business necessity, an Employer must conduct an individualized assessment of:
1. The nature and gravity of the criminal offense;
 2. The time that has elapsed since the criminal offense took place; and
 3. The nature of the Employment held or sought.
- E. Nothing in this section prevents an employer from considering an applicant’s criminal history after making a conditional offer of employment, except that an employer shall not consider:
1. An arrest not leading to a conviction, except where a crime is unresolved or charges are pending against an applicant;
 2. Convictions that have been judicially voided or expunged; or

3. Charges that have been resolved through the completion of a diversion or deferral of judgment program for offenses not involving physical harm or attempted physical harm to a person.

F. If, after consideration of an applicant's criminal history an employer rescinds the conditional offer of employment, the employer shall notify the applicant in writing of its decision and shall identify the relevant criminal convictions on which the decision is based.

23.10.040 Exceptions.

A. The prohibitions in this Chapter do not apply:

1. If federal, state or local law, including corresponding rules and regulations, requires the consideration of an applicant's criminal history;
2. To an employer that is a law enforcement agency;
3. To an employer in the criminal justice system; or
4. To an employer seeking a nonemployee volunteer.

B. For the following positions, an Employer may consider an applicant's criminal history at any point in the hiring process, and may use the City Criminal History Matrix provided by administrative rule to screen applicants, but must nonetheless comply with all other requirements of this Chapter. An individualized assessment shall be required for any criminal convictions not contained on the City Criminal History Matrix.

1. Positions involving direct access to or the provision of services to children, the elderly, persons with disabilities, persons with a mental illness, or individuals with alcohol or drug dependence or substance abuse disorders;
2. Positions which have been determined by administrative rule to present heightened public safety concerns or a business necessity;
3. Positions designated by the Employer as part of a federal, state or local government program designed to encourage the employment of those with criminal histories.

23.10.070 Confidentiality and Nondisclosure.

Any criminal history information obtained by an Employer shall remain confidential except where disclosure is required by law.

23.10.080 Public Education and Outreach.

The City shall develop and implement an outreach program to inform Employers and members of the public about the terms of this Chapter.

23.10.090 Severability.

If a provision of this Chapter or application thereof to any person or circumstance is judged invalid, the invalidity shall not affect the other provisions or application of the Chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Chapter are declared severable.

23.10.100 Application.
