

ORDINANCE NO. 78900

An Ordinance amending section 20-10304 of the license and business code so as to omit the provision for a minimum license fee of $5.00 for question and answer boards having a sale price for each hole or receptacle in excess of ten cents, and declaring an emergency.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. It appearing to the Council that the following sentence should be omitted from section 20-10304 as amended by Ordinance No. 78829, of the license and business code (Ordinance No. 76398) passed December 18, 1941:

For any board having a sale price for each hole or receptacle in excess of ten cents, a minimum fee of $5.00 each shall be paid.

Now, therefore, said section is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 20-10304. LICENSE FEES.

Class A. An annual fee of $100.00 and no license shall be issued for less than the full annual fee.

Class B. An annual fee of $25.00 and no license shall be issued for less than the full annual fee.

The following licenses shall be paid upon individual boards and shall be in addition to the license fees provided for classes A and B:

Boards having up to and including 500 holes or receptacles	25 cents each
Boards having 501 to 1000 holes or receptacles	50 cents each
Boards having 1001 to 1500 holes or receptacles	1 dollar each
Boards having more than 1500 holes or receptacles - 1 dollar each, plus 50 cents for each 500 holes or receptacles or fraction thereof in excess of 1500.

The fees provided for in this section shall be applicable on and after July 1st, 1943.

Section 2. Inasmuch as this ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, peace and safety of the City of Portland in this: That the provisions hereof should be effective as near the beginning of the new fiscal year as possible; therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage by the Council.
