MINISTER'S STUDY

454 ALDER STREET, PORTLAND, OREGON

Sept. 26, 1908.

His Honor, Dr. Harry Lane,
Mayor of Portland,
Portland, Oregon.

My dear Mayor Lane:

In the same mail in which I am sending a brief word of appreciation to the members of the Council who voted in the affirmative upon the ordinance to exclude women from the saloons, I trust it will not be considered presumptuous for me to send you a letter, saying how fully convinced I am, and a great many whose sentiments I know I represent, that the measure is a wise one.

Your approval and the rigid and yet reasonable enforcement of the ordinance will mean a great deal for the moral uplift of our community.

With best wishes,

Faithfully yours,

William Hiram Foulke

Oct.5th.,1908.

Rev.wm.Hiram Foulk,
Portland,Oregon.

My Dear Doctor:-

I am in receipt of your letter of the 26th inst., endorsing the passage and enforcement of the ordinance excluding women from saloons and thank you for the same.

In reply I will say that I have approved the ordinance and will enforce it to the best of the means provided me with which to do so.

If the ordinance contains no " joker" to render it ineffective and I know of none, it cannot help but do a great deal to relieve what was becoming a serious condition in this City.

You may confidently depend upon me doing my full duty in this matter.

Respectfully,

Mayor.
