

INDIVIDUALS FOR JUSTICE
PORTLAND, OREGON

5/18/2016

On May 4th an activist named Kif Davis asked that his 3 minutes of testimony be held in silence in honor of another activist who had allegedly taken her own life. He was called out of order, and was removed from the council, I also protested your decision and once again was removed from the chamber by your G4S security team. Davis had asked for 3 minutes and you ended up shutting down the council for 20-30 minutes, we and other organizations find that outrageous.

Michelle was a gentle soul who came to this council as a citizen to express her opinions but disliked confrontation face to face and would often be in the back and yell her objections to the way you were conducting the meeting. She was a fierce defender of the people who live on our streets. She was a victim and survivor of domestic violence. She was a gentle soul, my friend and you mayor could have handled Mr. Davis's request with style and patience. Once again your inability to understand the hurt that was felt in the community with this loss was demonstrated by you calling an activist out of order when you are out of order most of the time. You run these meeting any way you like, you give people you like extra time and cut off citizens who criticize you or the council. You sir, owe Mr. Davis an apology, but we all know you do not have the courage or the class to do that. I come here today to put into the record our displeasure of your behavior and look forward to Jan. of 2017 when the door closes on the terror reign of Char-lie-the-hales-Trumpy. I have included a picture of Michelle.

RIP MICHELLE MUNDT
