

ORDINANCE No. 131927

An Ordinance ratifying the action of approval of the City Auditor for the Council in permitting overnight lodging for 200 people at the First Presbyterian Church, 1200 S.W. Alder Street, Portland on November 27, 1970, and declaring an emergency.

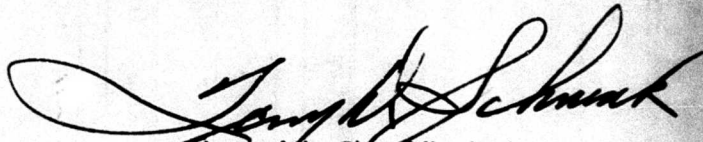

The City of Portland ordains:

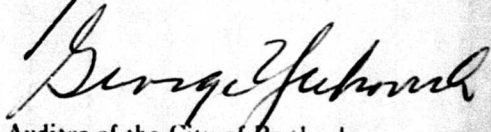

Section 1. The Council finds that by letter dated October 27, 1970, the First Presbyterian Church, 1200 S.W. Alder Street, Portland, by M.H. Hawke, Business Administrator, requested use of the church building for lodging approximately 200 people on the night of November 27, 1970 in connection with the conference of the United Presbyterian Youth Synod, composed of senior high students with adult advisors of the State of Oregon; that the request was investigated by the Fire Marshal and was approved by the Commissioner in charge on November 5, 1970, who thereafter reported to the Commissioner in charge of the Bureau of Buildings also necessary for approval; that by letter dated November 20, 1970 (Council Calendar No. 4146) the Commissioner of Public Works recommended approval with conditions set forth in the Fire Marshal's letter; that verbal approval thereafter was necessitated because of the time factor, and such verbal approval should be ratified; now, therefore, verbal approval given to the First Presbyterian Church, by M.H. Hawke, Business Administrator, to use its building, located at 1200 S.W Alder Street, Portland, for overnight lodging of approximately 200 people on November 27, 1970, in connection with the United Presbyterian Youth Synod of the State of Oregon, hereby is ratified.

Section 2. Inasmuch as this ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, peace and safety of the City of Portland in this: In order that there may be no unnecessary delay in showing ratification of approval of use of a building as set forth in Section 1 hereof; therefore, an emergency hereby is declared to exist and this ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage by the Council.
