

working for clean rivers

187903

Intergovernmental Agreement with Multnomah County Vector Control (Item #850)

July 20, 2016

ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES
CITY OF PORTLAND

NICK FISH, COMMISSIONER
MICHAEL JORDAN, DIRECTOR

Joe Dvorak

Bureau of Environmental Services

Chris Wirth

Multnomah County
Vector Control

Vector Control Services Needed

- Rats living in the sewers leave the pipes from street inlets and service branches
- BES owns over 180 stormwater quality sites requiring mosquito treatment and monitoring

Vector Control Service Provider

- County has been providing health services to City since 1968
- The County has been providing BES vector control services through multi-year Intergovernmental Agreements.
- Program Highlights
 - Rodent Control and Surveillance program
 - Mosquito Control and Surveillance program
 - Vector control education and public outreach
 - Emerging issues

New IGA

- Reimbursement based on actual services performed (fully-burdened hourly rate)
- Billing rates will be adjusted annually if necessary
- Reporting of data and metrics spatially
- Commitment to develop performance measures, benchmarking, and identify opportunities for improving efficiency

Program Budget & Schedule

- $277,000 for FY17
- IGA will go into effect immediately

Questions

Thank you

