Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

PHB administers the Homebuyer Opportunity and Multiple-Unit Limited Tax Exemption Programs, authorized under ORS 307 and Portland City Code 3.102 and 3.103. The City first codified tax exemption programs in 1985. The City's tax exemption programs provide an incentive for the development and maintenance of affordable housing. The home ownership programs in particular promote first time home ownership opportunities for income qualified homebuyers by providing a property tax exemption on the assessed value of newly built homes for ten years. During the exemption period, homes must continue to be owner occupied and not used as rental properties.

ORS 307.674, 307.687, 307.624 and 307.627 and City Code Sections 3.102.050, 3.102.080, and 3.103.100 require Portland City Council to approve, deny, and terminate tax exemptions in the form of a resolution. Portland Housing Bureau (PHB) brings resolutions to City Council several times per year in order to meet the approval and termination timelines set forth in statute and align with Multnomah County's timelines to certify tax rolls annually. PHB last brought such a resolution to City Council in June 2016. This current action to remove 19 exemptions results from on-going compliance of active exemptions in order to identify any properties not meeting the owner occupancy requirement, selling or to be sold over the price cap, or to over-income homebuyers. This resolution also acts to approve 7 new exemptions. The annual cap on the number of approved applications is 100. Applications from non-profit agencies or other entities providing long-term affordability are exempt from the annual cap. As of August 9, 2016, 93 application slots are still available.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

The 7 approved Homebuyer Opportunity Limited Tax Exemption applications will increase revenue for the City of Portland in the form of a one-time application fee totaling $5,250. A total of $1600 is collected for each completed and approved application, $750 goes towards Portland Housing Bureau administrative costs and $850 is paid to Multnomah County for administrative costs.

This legislation will decrease revenue for the City of Portland in the form of foregone revenue. The 7 approved HOLTE exemptions represent an estimated average of $2105 in foregone property taxes per year for each unit, for total annual foregone revenue of $14,735 and $147,350 over the total life of the ten year tax exemption. These dollar amounts include taxes foregone by the City of Portland, Multnomah County and other entities which receive property taxes within Multnomah County. The portion of tax revenue foregone by the City is just over 30 percent for the HOLTE exemptions which equals approximately $632 per unit for a one year total of $4,424 and ten-year total of $44,240 over the time-span of the exemption.

For each unit being terminated under the Homebuyer Opportunity Limited Tax Exemption (HOLTE) program (19), approximately $2105 will be added annually to the property tax rolls for a total of $39,995, with just over 30 percent of that revenue coming directly to the City of Portland amounting to $632 per unit for an approximate total of $12,008 in City revenue.

Community impacts and community involvement:

The homeownership tax exemption programs provide new tax exemptions across the City of Portland. Home builders must apply for exemptions prior to them being constructed, the homes, then, must sell for no more than the annual sale price cap (currently $310,000) to income qualified homebuyers (currently $73,300 for a household of four). Before removing a tax exemption, homeowners are given the opportunity to appeal as required by statute. As the largest taxing jurisdiction affected by the tax exemption programs, Multnomah County has approved the administration of the programs in order to meet shared affordable housing goals.
