211 Data

- 6,706 callers to 211 in 2011 sought homeless services*
- Top five caller needs in addition to the need for shelter:
 - Rent payment assistance
 - Housing search assistance
 - Subsidized housing administrative organizations
 - Low income/ subsidized private rental housing
 - Food stamps

* 211 does not collect identifying information so it is not possible to create an unduplicated count of callers. However, 17% of the 6,706 callers identified themselves as repeat callers.

Levels of Unmet Need

Data Source	#
Unsheltered (Point-in-Time)	1,718
Turnaways (Point-in-Time)	323*
Schools Data (Annual)	3,148

Note: The available data on unmet need is very limited. These figures provide some insights but do not reflect a full count of unmet need by any means. These figures are also not necessarily mutually exclusive.

* Turnaway Data does not include turnaways who were counted in the unsheltered figure.

* Schools Data includes families that were unsheltered, doubled up, or in motels in 2010-11.

Types of Unmet Need

Among callers to 211 seeking homeless services in 2011, the most common unmet needs were:

- Emergency shelters
- Motel vouchers
- Warming centers
- Drop-in centers
- Transitional housing
- Permanent supportive housing
- Rent assistance
- DV shelters
- Utility assistance
