Dear Sir:

Last night two officers of your force exceeded all one might expect or hope for in consideration and helpfulness.

Officer Gaunt and his associate were driving toward the United Air Port and found me standing on the side of the road with two bags trying to get a ride to the Airport. They put me in their car and rushed to the Airport just in time to make the 10:47 plane to Seattle. It was a real service and I appreciate it.

Of course, the officers first found out that I wasn't escaping from prison or an insane asylum. A friend was driving me to the Airport and when his car went bad we were stranded.

The incident reveals an attitude on the part of your men which cannot help but make friends for Portland.

Dear Sir;

On Tuesday evening, the 25th, there was a traffic accident at N E 50th and Broadway, a boy had collided with an automobile and was injured.

Your officers were there. One could not avoid being impressed with the cool yet positive efficiency these officers displayed. They knew exactly what to do, how to do it and it came to pass, right now. One outstanding man in a group like that can conceivably be accidental but where all are expert and coordinate their work as these officers did, it bespeaks training, based on a foundation of native intelligence.

As a citizen and taxpayer of Portland, permit me to express my hearty appreciation.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Dad:

I recently heard of an incident which was surely gratifying to me; that is, a few days ago Mr. A. G. Smith, an official of this company who resides in San Francisco, while driving into Portland on 82nd street in his automobile with Mrs. Smith and, of course, that car bearing a California license, was stopped by a police officer whose actions surely surprised Mr. Smith.

This officer said: "I see you are a visitor in our city. I have been noticing the manner in which you have operated your car and it is the desire of the City of Portland and Police Department to commend you by awarding a sticker placed on the windshield as a safe driver." In addition, the officer presented Mr. Smith with tickets to the police inspection and show at the Multnomah Stadium, which he attended and stated to me that he had never in his travels seen such a wonderful program of this nature or as efficient police bureau, and that he personally would like to thank the Police Bureau, as well as the officer, and call to the attention of his superiors the courteous manner in which he was handled. I have learned that the officer was F. C. Gauntt.

I know that this will be pleasing to you, as you know I recognize in the police business there are many criticisms and few commendations.

I shall greatly appreciate your thanking Officer Gauntt for the courtesies extended to Mr. Smith.

R.V.J.

March 31, 1941.

Chief of Portland Police
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir :-

On the 17th. of March my wife and I were visiting your beautiful city and taking in the sights as best we could, for being strangers in your city we had a hard time getting around and coming down from Rocky Butte we found ourselves on a different road than what we took up and we wished to visit another place before it got too dark when I pulled up to a Boulevard and reading the signs we still did not know how to get to where we wanted to go, my wife saw a car parked on the side just back of us so I backed up to inquire on how to get to our destination and found that the occupants were two of your police officers.

We told them where we wanted to go and one of them directed us and further more told me to follow him and he would take us there which he did.

On arriving there he got out of his car took my license number down and then gave me a safe driver sticker and his card which bore the name of Ferdinand C. Gauntt, Bureau of Police.

I want to commend him for his politeness and courtesy and if the rest of your officers are like him you have a wonderful police force.

Thanks to Officer Gauntt
Sincerely

W.C. Slade
