

SE 122nd Ave: Johnson Creek Bridge Replacement Project

City Council | Item 365 | April 18, 2018

WE KEEP PORTLAND MOVING.

PBOT
PORTLAND BUREAU OF TRANSPORTATION

City Bridge BR-099

SE 122nd Ave over Johnson Creek

Storm Debris - Dec 2015

Storm Debris
Pile Blocking
Bridge

Bridge Closed - Feb 2016

Permitting

Agency	Permit/Regulation
Federal Highway Administration	National Environmental Policy Act
US Army Corps of Engineers	Section 404 – Clean Water Act
National Marine Fisheries Service	Endangered Species Act Section 7
US Fish and Wildlife Service	Endangered Species Act Section 7
US Department of Agriculture	Migratory Bird Treaty Act
Oregon Department of State Lands	Removal/Fill
Oregon Department of Environmental Quality	Section 401 Clean Water Act
Environmental Protection Agency	Clean Air Act
National Parks Service	Section 6(f)
United States Department of Transportation	Section 4(f)
Portland Bureau of Development Services	Type II Land Use Review
Oregon State Historic Preservation Office	Section 106 - NHPA

Project Timeline

Date	Milestone / Event
2016 - February	Bridge Closed
2016 - September	Authorized to Start Design
2017 - January	Starting Applying for Permits
2017 - November	Received Permits
2017 - December	Final Plans Approved
2018 - January	Advertised For Construction
2018 - July	Anticipated Start of On-Site Work (In-Water Work)
2018 – November	Anticipated New Bridge Opening

Just over 2 years from start of design to anticipated bridge opening*

New Bridge

Highlights

- Sidewalk both sides
- ADA accessible
- No weight restriction
- Clear span over creek

Renderings by Ross Swanson (Parks & Recreation)

