Legislation title: Fixing Our Streets Annual Program Report (Report)

Contact name: Mychal Tetteh

Contact phone: 503-823-5320

Presenter names: Chris Warner-Interim Director, Mychal Tetteh-Program Manager

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

The purpose of this report is to provide Council members with an update and advice from our citizen Oversight Committee on the following:

- The effective use of program resources within program guidelines
- Recommended changes to the project list
- Construction impacts on businesses and neighborhoods
- The utilization of DMWESB businesses in program delivery

Financial and budgetary impacts:

- This report does not create a financial action

Community impacts and community involvement:

- Community engagement has been a priority for the Fixing Our Streets Program since its beginning. In September of 2016 the Bureau of Transportation established a Program Oversight Committee whose charge is to advise City Council on key program implementation elements
