J. C. BOWERS
MANAGER.

July 10 1905

Mayor Lane

Dear Sir:-

A young Portland lady told our committee this morning that you thought Rev. Anna Shaw was rather severe on the men, in her remarks at the unveiling of the Sacajawea statue. I take the liberty of enclosing to you a little of our Association's official literature, to show you how far we are from being actuated by any spirit of hostility toward our fathers and brothers. We believe fully that equal suffrage will be a good thing for the men as well as for the women.

With apologies for taking up your time, I remain

Yours sincerely,
Alice Stone Blackwell.
