

Cheat Sheet

For Reading Testimony in the BPS MapApp

Step 1:

Go to <https://www.portlandmaps.com/bps/testimony/>

Step 2:

Click the project you'd like to read the testimony for on the left bar.

The screenshot shows the BPS Public Testimony Reader interface. The page has a search bar at the top with a 'Clear' button. Below the search bar, there are two main sections: 'PUBLIC TESTIMONY RECORDS' and 'ACTIVE PROPOSALS'. The 'PUBLIC TESTIMONY RECORDS' section lists several records, each with a title, a brief description, and a date. The 'ACTIVE PROPOSALS' section lists several proposals, each with a title and a brief description. The 'DOZA' proposal is highlighted with a red circle.

Project Name	Testimony Title	Date

Step 3:

Click through and read each piece of testimony.

That's it! Thank you for taking the time to consider our communities' thoughts, ideas and suggestions!

Optional Step 4:

Click the search bar and type your keyword/name/address to narrow your search.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://www.portlandmaps.com/bps/testimony/#proposal=midz>. The page title is "Public Testimony Reader Beta". The search bar contains the text "parking" and a dropdown menu is open, showing the following search results:

- Parking
- Parking and TDM
- Parking/TDM
- Bicycle Parking Code Update
- Mixed Use - Parking/TDM
- Tony Jordan / Portlanders for Parking Reform

The main content area displays a list of public testimony records. Each record includes the author's name, the topic, and the date. The records are:

- Oct 4, 2019: Recommendations for the Better Housing by Design policies, especially those of... and less setbacks. We need more housing in Portland, and we need...
- Yesterday: Tracy Prince, Better Housing by Design. I'm the president of Goose Hollow Foothills League (neighborhood association) where King's Hill Historic District is located. Goose Hollow is one of the densest neighborhoods in all of Oregon. Goose Hollow residents are 85%...
- Yesterday: Brad Baker, Better Housing by Design. I'm writing to let you know my overall support of BHD. I think the more we can do to encourage density in our city, the better our city will become. We'll be able to support higher frequency transit, our neighborhoods will become more...
- Yesterday: Tom Karwaki, Better Housing by Design. The UPNA Land Use Committee supports most of the BPS recommended report. In order to review other comments, the University Park Neighborhood Association Land Use Committee requests that the record remain open...
- Yesterday: Ovid Boyd, Better Housing by Design. Dear city council, Please completely eliminate parking requirements in the new Better Housing by Design. The priority for our city should be affordable housing for people. We should not be making construction (and therefore housing)...
- Yesterday: Tamara Denidder, Better Housing by Design. Dear Karla, Please forward the attached document to the Mayor and City Commissioners as testimony on Better Housing By Design as testimony taken today Oct. 2, 2019. I am in hope that I can still make it in time to present...
- Yesterday: Steve Bozzone, Better Housing by Design. Dear City Council-- I am writing in full support of the Better Housing by Design project. I especially support the aspect of removing parking minimums. The removal of parking minimums is aligned with our city's housing affordable...

Note: Staff will be “tagging” DOZA testimony with the following keywords:

- Purpose
- Map
- Thresholds
- DAR
- Process
- Guidelines
- Standards
- Future Work
