Presenter name: Suk Rhee

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

June 2019 Budget Note:

“City Council directs the Office of Community & Civic Life, working with the Office of Equity and Human Rights, Bureau of Human Resources, and City Attorney’s Office, to conduct a thorough analysis of current practices and policies for providing stipends to volunteer members of City advisory bodies, looking both at existing practice for City of Portland advisory bodies and examples of stipend policies and practices used by other jurisdictions. The bureaus shall present the findings of this analysis and a recommendation for a Citywide policy on stipends for advisory bodies to Council by January 2020.”

Financial and budgetary impacts:

The taskforce group will offer a final set of recommendations including budget projections by May 2020.

Community impacts and community involvement:

Community engagement is recommended after the Taskforce has received Council direction on emerging policy options.

100% Renewable Goal: N/A
