The city of Portland is in chaos and the citizens are living in fear. They no longer have faith in their own police department and it has gotten so bad that the federal government is bring in their own police to protect their property. There is on solution. As the governor to bring in the Oregon National Guard to protect property and lives. You would do this if we had just suffered a level 9 subduction earthquake. Well, we are suffering a cultural pandemic and you need to act decisively now.
