

followup on macadam character discussion

Jeanne Galick <jeanne.galick@gmail.com>

Wed 6/17/2020 5:19 PM

To: Ballew, Cassie <Cassandra.Ballew@portlandoregon.gov>; Bischoff, Debbie <Debbie.Bischoff@portlandoregon.gov>

 2 attachments (105 KB)

proposed macadam crossing.pdf; ATT00001.htm;

Here are photos of the pedestrian walkway from Corbett & Richardson to Heron Pointe Wetlands. As you can see, it is an unimproved crossing at Macadam. A crosswalk would be a big improvement.

The pedestrian connection from Corbett & Richardson, down to Macadam and the greenway at Heron Pointe Wetlands. A crosswalk at Macadam would be a safety improvement.

looking west, sidewalk from Corbett & Richardson that goes down to Macadam

At Macadam, looking east to the sidewalk which turns and goes steeply up to Corbett/Richardson

On the other side of Macadam, looking east to the river is an inviting, wide trail to the greenway & Heron Pointe Wetlands

