Dear [REDACTED]

August 11th is a big day. In less than one week, Portlanders will decide who will fill the seat vacated by the passing of Commissioner Nick Fish. Our city is on the brink in more ways than one; the COVID-19 pandemic has changed the way we live, and its economic fallout is going to have a massive impact on our city that we're only just beginning to understand. At the same time, we are in the middle of fighting for a once-in-a-generation opportunity to reform the Portland Police Bureau and substantively address systemic racism in our city. This work is going to be tough. It's going to require us to do things we've never done before. And in order to do that, we as City Councillors are going to need to lean on each other in a big way.

In choosing our next City Councilor, we need someone who knows how to work as a member of a team. Someone who has a track record of building an equitable workplace where a wide range of voices are brought together to create meaningful change. Someone who truly understands the value of building bridges in our community.

Dan Ryan will be that City Councilor.

Dan's collaborative work style and proven track record show us that he has exactly what this city needs in these difficult times. Dan will bring people together so we can get through these crises, and build a future we can all believe in. I urge you to support Dan Ryan in next Tuesday's special election. Be sure to vote by August 11th, and if you can, please consider giving to Dan's campaign today.

Thank you for being a part of the fabric of this community!
